

Compound Words

Directions: Solve each riddle by writing a compound word on the line.

1.

+

=

2.

+

=

3.

+

=

4.

+

=

5.

+

=

6.

+

=

Parts of a Whole

Directions: What part of each shape is shaded? Draw a line to the correct fractional part. Hint: The top number of a fraction stands for the number parts that are colored. The bottom number of a fraction stands for the total number of parts, colored and not colored.

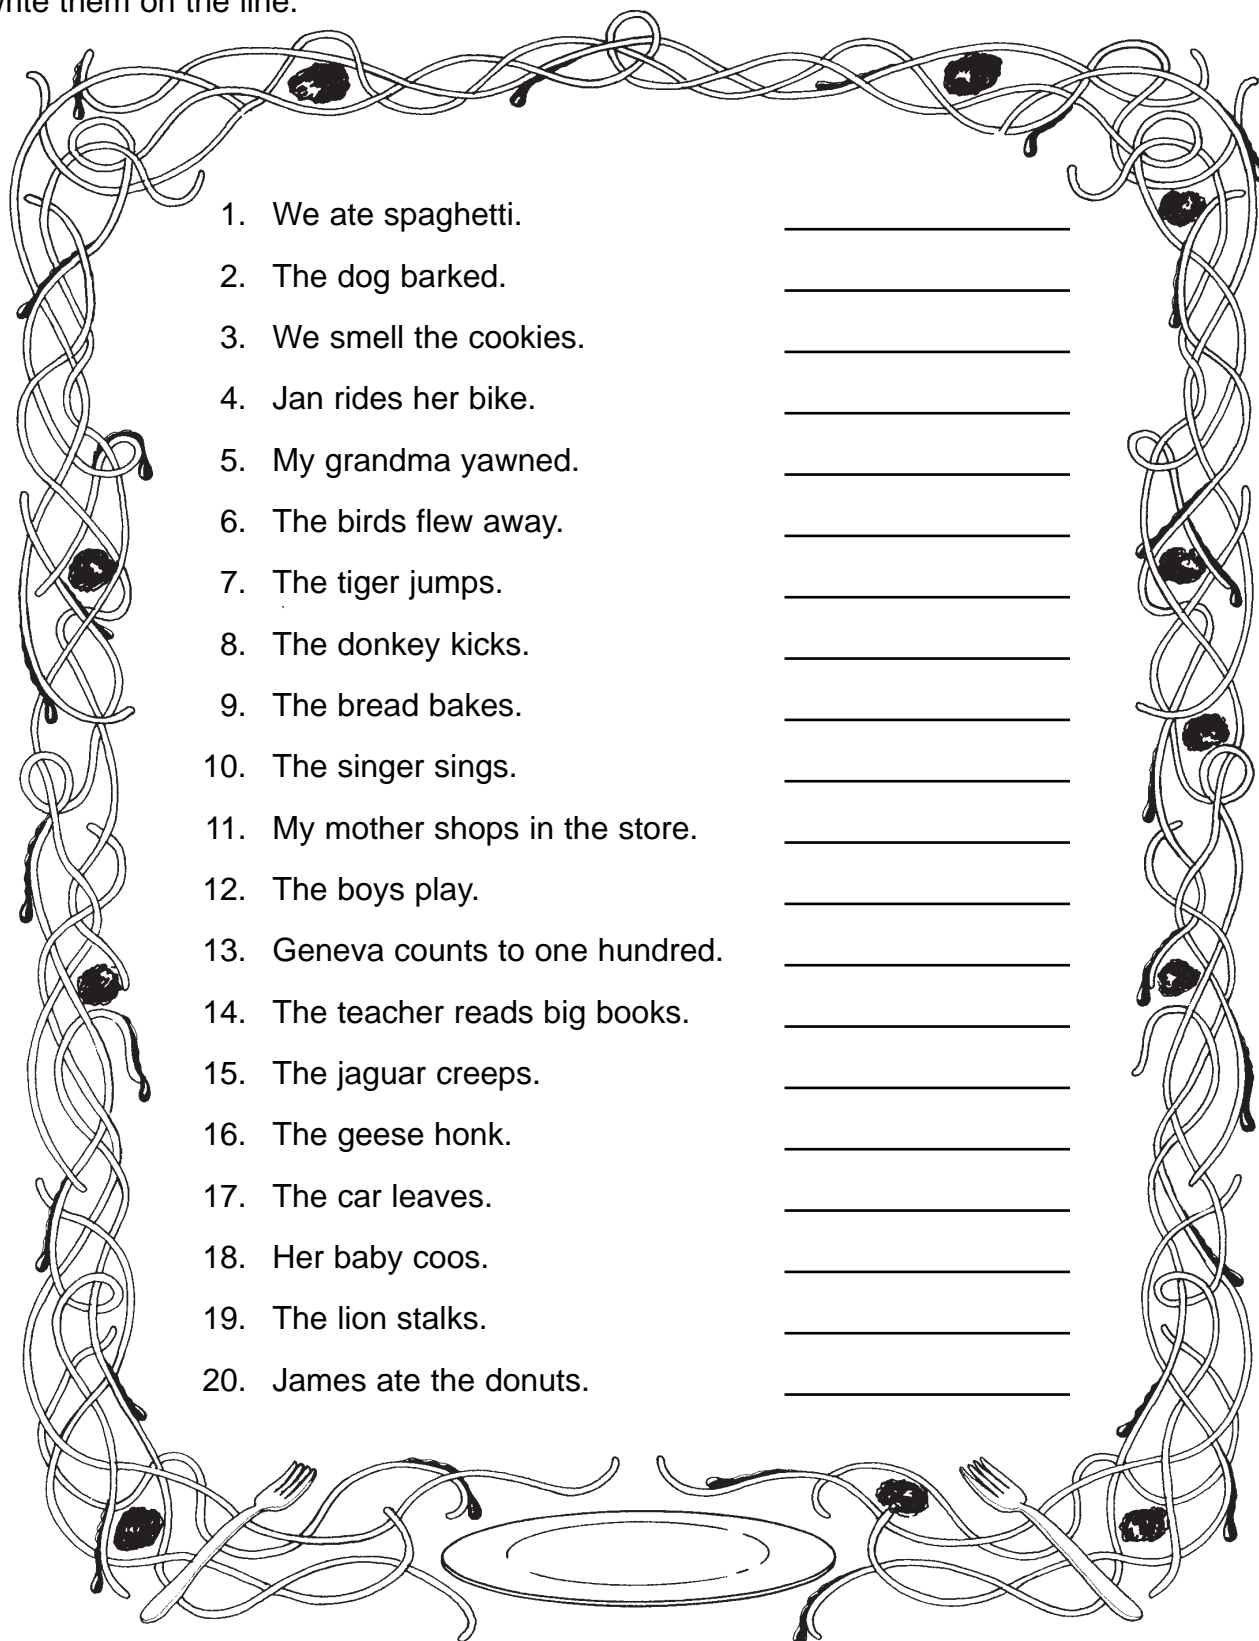

- | | | |
|----|--|---------------|
| 1. | | $\frac{1}{2}$ |
| 2. | | $\frac{2}{5}$ |
| 3. | | $\frac{3}{5}$ |
| 4. | | $\frac{2}{3}$ |
| 5. | | $\frac{1}{3}$ |
| 6. | | $\frac{1}{4}$ |

Table of Contents

Introduction and Standards	3
Parts of Speech Overview	4
Nouns
What is a Noun?	6
Name Those Nouns!	7
Which Noun Is It?	8
In Need of a Noun	9
Classifying Nouns	10
Getting Proper	11
Which Noun Is Which?	12
Mixed-Up Nouns!	13
Noun Riddles	14
Where Are the Nouns?	15
Nouns, and More Nouns	16
Verbs
What Is a Verb?	17
Verbs and Action	18
Very Amazing Verbs	19
The Missing Verbs	20
Acting Out Verbs	21
Verbs, Verbs, Verbs	22
Unscramble the Verbs	23
Verify the Verb	24
Nouns and Verbs	25
Wacky Verbs	26
Verbally Speaking	27
Verbs, More Verbs	28
Adjectives
What Is an Adjective?	29
Adjective Pairs	30
Getting Specific	31
Adding On!	32
Attaching Adjectives	33
Defining Descriptions	34
The Missing Adjective	35
Nouns and Adjectives	36
Replace the Adjective	37
Describing Words	38
Adjectives, and More Adjectives	39
Standardized Test Practice	40
Answer Key	44

What is a Verb?

A verb is an action word. Circle the verbs or the action words in the sentences below and write them on the line.

1. We ate spaghetti. _____
2. The dog barked. _____
3. We smell the cookies. _____
4. Jan rides her bike. _____
5. My grandma yawned. _____
6. The birds flew away. _____
7. The tiger jumps. _____
8. The donkey kicks. _____
9. The bread bakes. _____
10. The singer sings. _____
11. My mother shops in the store. _____
12. The boys play. _____
13. Geneva counts to one hundred. _____
14. The teacher reads big books. _____
15. The jaguar creeps. _____
16. The geese honk. _____
17. The car leaves. _____
18. Her baby coos. _____
19. The lion stalks. _____
20. James ate the donuts. _____

Defining Descriptions

Adjectives are describing words. Circle the adjectives in each of the sentences below and draw arrows to the nouns that the adjectives describe. The first one is done for you.

1. The chocolate cake is finished.

2. The red licorice is all gone.

3. An angry man stormed out of the store.

4. Mr. Pitts read us a long story.

5. My dad likes to write me long letters.

6. Where can I find the new grocery store?

7. His funny Aunt Sally is coming to visit.

8. The bright sun was shining that day.

9. At recess, I like to play on the monkey bars.

10. Her orange goldfish is named Macaroni and Cheese.

11. The stern look gave me an idea of how angry she was.

12. Open the locked door so we can get started!

13. My mom says I am kind to others.

14. After swimming for an hour, I drank a cold soda.

Table of Contents

Introduction	3
About this Book	4
Good Writing Traits	5
Sample Scoring Rubric	8
Scoring Rubric (Template)	9
Standards for Writing	10
Ideas and Content	11
Camels—Camel Trick—Why Three?—It Has Seven—Camel Driver—Two Talking Camels—Where Camels Race—Home Neighbors—Robots on Camels—The Race Is On!—A Nose That Closes—What You Can Do—Pen Pal—The Eiffel Tower—Left or Right—Alien in the Kitchen—Journal—The Nocturnal Cat—Fire Lookout—A Circus Wants You!—Dog on Board!—Elephant in Class!—What Room Is It?—The Room for You—Tall Tales
Word Choice	37
Big or Enormous?—Small or Tiny?—Name Poems—Man in the Moon—Animal Sounds—Made of Steel—The Horse—What Is It?—In a Freezer—A Race in an Oven—Action!—Treasure Hunt!—Compass Fun—Silly Days—Have to Have It!—Buy This House!—The Princess—The Crocodile—Fruit or Vegetable—Trapped!—Long Ago—Tomorrow—The Dog in the Tub—Student Saves the Day!—Tongue Twister
Fluency	63
Fun with One!—Jack Rhymes—Super Snakes—King Snake—Milk Snakes—Two-headed Snake—Short into Long—Working Dog—Weather Announcer—Tornado Warning!—What Planet?—Circus Train—The Best Day—Swallowed a Fly—The President’s Call—Walking to Australia—The Three Stars—Greenland Tale—Zoo Order—The Martian’s Cake—From A to B—Where School Is—RSVP—The Frog Ball—Crash!
Voice	89
Back Pocket—The Gorilla—The Best Water—The Lost Animals—Windy Days—The Opposite—The Best Book—Goldilocks—A Visitor—Grow and Shrink—A Lesson on Dates—Journal from England—Shark Lady—Quick Thinking—Talking Tails—The Unhappy Wolf—A Special Person—The Fox and the Crow—Morning Sounds—The Alarm Clock—The Tiny Crumb—The Big Find—Hot-Air Balloon—A Lofty View—Knock on the Door
Organization	115
The Planets—Find the Treasure —Story Start—Popcorn Snack—Talking on the Phone—Riddles—Thanksgiving Day—Llama at Work—Basketball—Power Out!—Otter Log—Otter Pup’s Log—Crossing Greenland—Good Thoughts—What Cub?—Who Is Knocking?—Raindrops—Two Friends—Eating a Watermelon—Seed-Spitting Contest—Teddy’s Bears—Teddy’s Letter—All Mixed Up—Stripes and Spots—The Sign
Conventions	141
New York on Monday—Book Names—The Baseball Player—The Light Bay—The Blue Whale—A Big Surprise—The Mosquito—Scooter Wheels—Niagara Falls—The Rider—Could You?—The Club—Lightning—Fast, Fast, Fast!—The Hammock—Stay in Bed—Cinquain—Zetta—Egg on Feet—Lost and Found—In Training—Alice’s Diary—Packing List—A Trip Into Space—Knock Knock!
Writing Prompts	167

What do you know about camels?

Do camels have one hump or two humps? _____

What do camels store in their humps? _____

You can read about camels in books.

Bactrian camels have two humps.

Dromedary camels have one hump.

Camels store fat in their humps.

What if there is little food? The camel uses the fat in its hump. The hump droops and falls over!

There is a camel with one hump. The hump is drooping and falling over. Write about this camel. What kind is it? Why is its hump drooping? Does this mean that it is sick?

Tornado Warning!

In Case of a Tornado

1. Go to a basement or inside room or hallway on lowest floor.
2. Stay away from windows.
3. Crouch down if you can, under a sturdy desk or table.
4. If outside or in car, leave car and lie flat in a ditch or low spot.

You are a weather announcer. You need to give a tornado warning. Write down what you will say over the radio by following these steps:

1. Introduce yourself and tell who you are working for. Make up a place!
2. Tell people what is coming.
3. Tell people where they should go.
4. Tell people what to stay away from.
5. Tell people what to do.
6. Tell people outside or in a car what to do.

Practice reading your announcement out loud to yourself. When you read, think about how announcers make their voices sound excited and calm at different times. Read your announcement to the class or a friend when you are ready.

The Best Book

There are all kinds of books. Some books are fiction. Fiction books are made up. Some books are fact books. Fact books are nonfiction. Nonfiction books are about real things.

Think of a book that you like a lot. The book can be fiction or nonfiction. Now you are going to tell someone else about this story or book. Follow these steps when you write down what you are going to say.

1. Introduce yourself and which book you are going to talk about.
2. Give the author's name and state if the book is fiction or nonfiction.
3. Name the characters.
4. State where it takes place.
5. Describe the main action.
6. Tell about a part you really liked or found exciting or scary.

Goldilocks

The story of Goldilocks and the Three Bears is fiction. It is made-up. It is a story people like to tell. In the story, Goldilocks goes into the bears' house when they have gone out into the woods so that their porridge can cool. Goldilocks sits in their chairs. She tastes their porridge. She sleeps in their beds. Imagine you are Baby Bear. Now imagine you are telling someone about the day Goldilocks came to your house. Write down what you tell your friend about:

- why you go into the woods.
- how you felt when you saw your broken chair.
- how you felt when you saw that all of your porridge had been eaten.
- how you felt when you saw Goldilocks in your bed.
- what you think of Goldilocks.

This is your own journal. Think of it as a diary. In it you can share your thoughts and feelings.

What can you write about in your journal? There are many things! You can create lists. You can describe things you see. You can write about your family, hobbies, and friends. You can tell about special events in your life. You can share how you feel about people and things in the world around you.

First, read the journal tips below. Then, relax and write.

There are some fun journal topics on the next page to get you started.

Keep your journal tucked away in a safe place. You will enjoy reading it many years from now!

Journal Tips

Feel free to say what you want. There is no right or wrong.

Don't worry about spelling mistakes. Just write!

Don't worry about capital letters, periods, or commas. You can correct them later if you want.

