

Table of Contents

Introduction	3
What Is a Paragraph?	4
Getting Started (Getting Ideas—Brainstorming)	5
The Essential Parts of a Paragraph
Take It Apart!	7
What’s the Big Idea?	8
What’s the Point?	9
Let Me Tell You	11
How About a Little Help?	13
We Need Some Body	15
What Happened Next?	17
And Then	18
Finally!	19
Different Kinds of Paragraph Writing
This Is The Story	20
Start Explaining	21
Give Us a Description	22
On the Other Hand	23
I Will Convince You	24
In My Opinion	25
Define This!	26
Paragraph Practice
Mud!	27
Sticky Glue!	28
When I Grow Up	29
Paragraph Starters	30
Putting It All Together
The Essay	32
The Letter	34
Paragraph Plans (The Work Sheet—The Checklist)	35
Paragraph Fun
Paragraph Pass	37
Group Paragraphs	40
Scrambled Paragraphs	41
Paragraph Matching	43
Team Paragraphs	45
Paragraph Maze	47
Answer Key	48

What's the Big Idea?

A paragraph should tell the reader about one idea. If you have more than one idea, you will need to write more than one paragraph.

In the Ideas Bank below, you will find 10 ideas or topics. There are 10 lists on this page that need a main idea. Take the ideas from the box and write them at the top of the lists below.

Ideas Bank

Favorite Foods

Homework

Favorite Rides

School

Sports

Summer

Pet Peeves

Ice Cream

Travel

Chores

1. _____

Dust makes me sneeze.

Takes too much time.

Boring

2. _____

Pizza

Candy

Burritos

3. _____

Recess

Study Hall

Library

4. _____

People who cut in line

Losing my lunch money

Alarm clocks

5. _____

Creamy, cold, and sweet

Banana splits

Hot fudge sundaes

6. _____

Books

Assignment schedule

Where to work at home

7. _____

Roller coasters

Loop rides

Spinning rides

8. _____

Packing

Tickets and reservations

Souvenirs

9. _____

Swimming

Popsicles

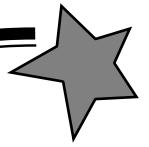

Vacations

10. _____

Basketball

Hockey

Baseball

Mud!

Your paragraph assignment fell in the mud on the way to school. You can read some of what you wrote. The rest is covered in mud! Now you'll have to write parts of your paragraph over again.

I like all the things in my room, but there are three things I especially like. One of my favorite things is _____ because _____

Another thing I really like is _____

because _____

Finally, I like _____

because _____

I'm so glad I have these three things in my room.