

Table of Contents

Introduction	3	August Web Sites and Key Words	75
How to Use This Book	4	September Web Sites and Key Words	76
Editing	5	October Web Sites and Key Words	77
Proofreading Marks	8	November Web Sites and Key Words	78
January	9	December Web Sites and Key Words	79
February	14	Calendar Grids	79
March	19	Answer Keys	86
April	24	January Answer Key	86
May	29	February Answer Key	91
June	34	March Answer Key	96
July	38	April Answer Key	101
August	43	May Answer Key	106
September	48	June Answer Key	111
October	52	July Answer Key	115
November	57	August Answer Key	120
December	62	September Answer Key	125
Web Sites	67	October Answer Key	129
January Web Sites and Key Words	68	November Answer Key	134
February Web Sites and Key Words	69	December Answer Key	139
March Web Sites and Key Words	70	Resources	144
April Web Sites and Key Words	71
May Web Sites and Key Words	72
June Web Sites and Key Words	73
July Web Sites and Key Words	74

April 24

the first american league baseball game were played between cleveland and chicago on april 24 1901 chicago won by a score of 8 to 2 what two states are these cities in

April 25

on april 25 1901 new york becomed the first state to require automobile license plates it costed $1.00 to by the plates why do states require drivers to put license plates on theyre car

April 26

charles richter was born on april 26 1900 he was a seismologist who developed the richter scale this scale measures the force of earthquakes a quake of less then 3.0 is hardly noticeable but a quake of 6.0 can cause buildings to shake

April 27

ulysses s grant was born on april 27 1822 he was the eighteenth president of the united states he was also the commander of the union army during the civil war the transcontinental railroad was finished during his presidency

April 28

james monroe was born on april 28 1758 he was the fifth u.s. president and the only other president besides george washington to run unopposed what does unopposed mean

April 29

on april 29 1913 gideon sundback patented the zipper he called it a “separable fastener,” because you could separate the too parts from each other and then fasten them back together again

April 30

on april 30 1803 napoleon selled the louisiana territory to president thomas jefferson for about 2 cents per acre it was the largest land purchase in world history what states were included in the louisiana territory

Note: Answers given to questions in italics are for information only.

April Answer Key (cont.)

April 24

The first American League baseball game was played between Cleveland and Chicago on April 24, 1901. Chicago won by a score of 8 to 2. In what two states are these cities? (Answer: Cleveland is in Ohio; Chicago is in Illinois.)

April 25

On April 25, 1901, New York became the first state to require automobile license plates. It cost $1.00 to buy the plates. Why do states require drivers to put license plates on their cars? (Answer: License plates allow cars to be easily identified by law enforcement officials.)

April 26

Charles Richter was born on April 26, 1900. He was a seismologist who developed the Richter Scale. This scale measures the force of earthquakes. A quake of less than 3.0 is hardly noticeable, but a quake of 6.0 can cause buildings to shake.

April 27

Ulysses S. Grant was born on April 27, 1822. He was the eighteenth president of the United States. He was also the commander of the Union Army during the Civil War. The Transcontinental Railroad was finished during his presidency.

April 28

James Monroe was born on April 28, 1758. He was the fifth U.S. president and the only other president besides George Washington to run unopposed. What does “unopposed” mean? (Answer: “Unopposed” means that no one ran against the candidate. In this case it was Monroe.)

April 29

On April 29, 1913, Gideon Sundback patented the zipper. He called it a “separable fastener,” because you could separate the two parts from each other and then fasten them back together again.

April 30

On April 30, 1803, Napoleon sold the Louisiana Territory to President Thomas Jefferson for about two cents per acre. It was the largest land purchase in world history. What states were included in the Louisiana Territory? (Answer: All of Louisiana, Arkansas, Missouri, Nebraska, South Dakota, North Dakota, and Iowa were in the territory. Parts of Montana, Colorado, Wyoming, Oklahoma, Mississippi, Alabama, Kansas, and Minnesota were also in the territory.)