

Then he waits.

There is no sign of a sea monster.

Captain Red Beard loves meeting other pirates.
They are not always pleased to see him.

Ships and Boats

Captain Blackheart and his crew set sail on an ancient clipper — she was old but she was fast. These well-armed pirates were hunting for treasure. They'd heard that a gold-filled galleon was just off the coast. They planned to attack at dawn, taking everything — ship, crew and all.

Captain: Lazy? Yes, I can see that. You are the laziest pirates at sea. Sorry we woke you. We would like to help you go back to sleep. My crew will hum a tune for you.

Crew: (Hum Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star.)

Narrator: The humming sent Captain Lizard and his crew into a deep, deep sleep.

Captain: Now, let's find some treasure.
Red Beard

Crew: We found some gold! We found some silver! We found lots of treasure!

Narrator: The Black Beast set sail over the seven seas in search of more pirates.

Fingers: Pirate ship on the starboard bow, Captain.
