

The tracks are made just for the race.

One of the track races is called the match sprint.

Some cyclists ride in road races.

They bike on roads for many miles.

Another event is mountain bike racing.

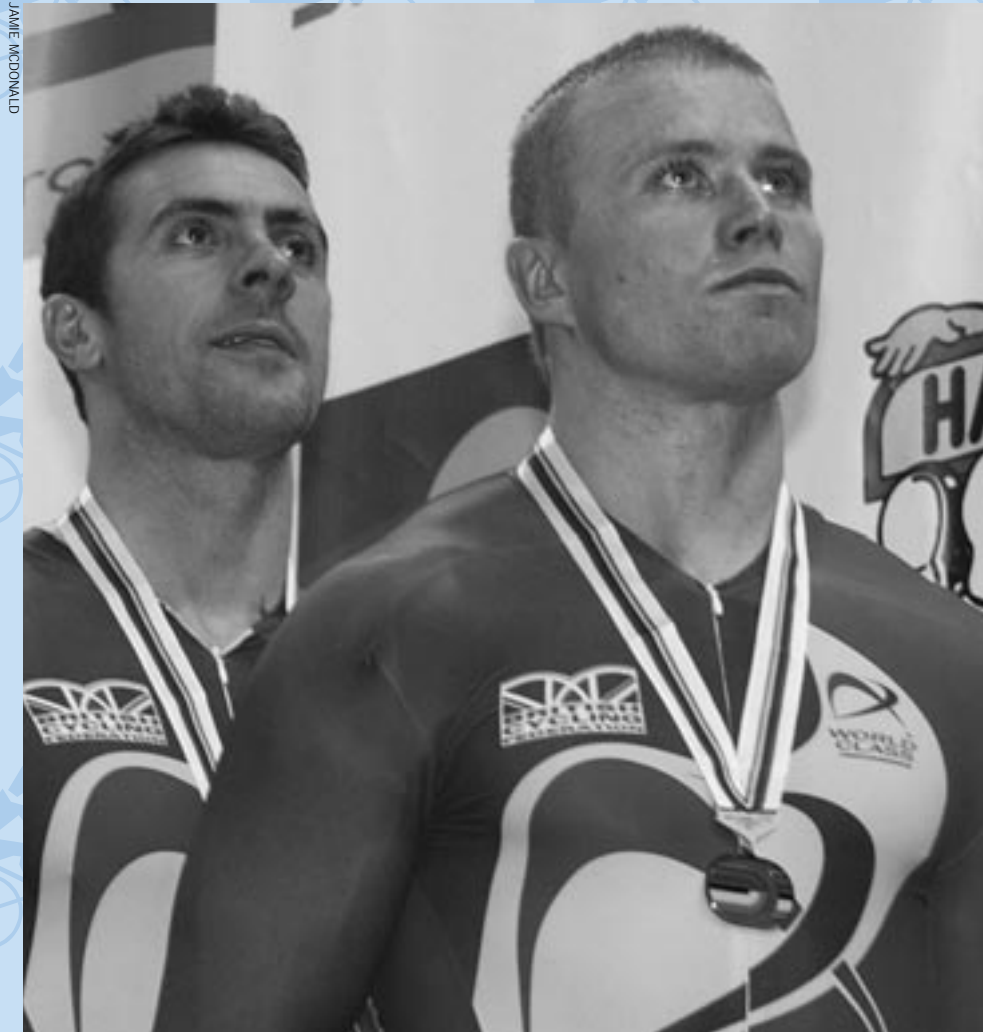

These races go through woods and fields.

All of the cyclists want to do their best.

In some events, just one person wins a gold medal.

JAMIE McDONALD

In team races, everyone on the winning team gets a medal.